Me, I'm the first boy barefoot in springtime
Don't wear no shoes till fall.
Spend my mornin's fishin and swimmin in the creek
And no one cares how long I stays at all.

I got no bathtub
I got no clean clothes
I stays out half the night
Sleep in empty barrels and pick ten fights a week
And no one tries to tell me wrong from right.

I have to get dressed up
And head straight for the school house
To learn my lessons each and every day.
My Aunt
Just can't
See things no other way.

My neck's scrubbed, my shirt's starched
And I'm tucked in at bedtime
I spend my Sundays goin to Bible school
Prayin
Sayin
That good old golden rule!

Why don't you break loose, be independent
Go grab yourself a pole
Why waste your time a readin and learnin how to spell
There's fun a waitin at the fishin hole.

Supposin Aunt Polly
Should happen to discover
I never showed up for arithmetic
If I
Should try
To hook, I'll get the stick.

Fun's a waitin!
Fun's a waitin?
Fun's a waitin!!
Fun's a waitin! At the Fishin Hole!!!
